DUNMORE.

Its a very close thing, I mean the Road question. If the matter had not been misrepresented to some of the people, the majority in favor of Road Law would have been over one hundred, but we think the men that opposed it so hard will lay off their coats and work up the roads this year in good shape.

We had some frost last week but think it did but little damage.

Saturday was the hottest day of the spring. A heavy thunder storm at night. The lightning struck a poplar tree in Co. Pritchard's yard ruining the tree but fortunately the house was not injured.

People are shearing sheep. Wool is worth 27cts in the city.

We see Swecker has returned from Etray where he sold out a thousand dollar stock of goods last week. He has a thousand dollars worth to sell at Frost and at Green Bank, the 25 and 27. Come and hear him blow his horn.

We examined Mr. Geo. W. Ginger's patent horse-shoe wrench and hammer, and find it a perfect tool. We understand that Mr. Ginger has been offered a handsome sum for his invention.

W. H. Cackley is still in Ronceverte.

J. K. Taylor was over to Monte rey last week.

W. J. Pritchard is home on a visit.

Hamilton Collins has moved on Laurel run.

Dr. O. J. Campbell was here last week operating on teeth.

Rev. J. H. McCall preached the ablest historical sermon on the 14th that was ever listened to at this place. He leaves for China.
